Bank Bandit Adopts Plan Of Athlete

Miss Seeley Says Man Held For Los Angeles Crimes Is Not Her Abductor

Gerge McBride, held by Los Angeles police for three bank stickups where the methods employed were identical with those used by the desperado who held up the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, is not the man wanted here. Miss Mattie Seeley, assistant cashier of the local bank who was kidnapped during the holdup here, is sure of that.

Accompanied by Police Chief McMillan Miss Seeley went to Los Angeles on Wednesday at the suggestion of Los Angeles police and watched McBride in the shadow box at detective headquarters.

"That is not the man," said Miss Seeley the moment she saw McBride, "I am sure of that."

The longer she remained at headquarters the more certain was Miss Seeley that McBride was not her abductor. He is much shorter than the bandit who forced her into his car, there is little facial resemblance, and his voice and mannerisms are vastly different than those of the man whom she had such a splendid opportunity to observe, both while he was helping himself out of the bank cash box and during the ride he forced her to take in the hope of preventing pursuers from firing at him.

"There is no possible chance that McBride is the man we want," said Chief McMillan, "but the Los Angeles police are very sure they have the man who did three daring jobs in that city, in each of which the methods of the bandit were identical with those of the fellow who came up here. In each case he vaulted over the counter, covered the bank employees in exactly the same manner and made his getaway just as the fellow who stuck up our bank did."

Los Angeles police now believe that the athletic "shopping bag bandit" wanted for the Sierra Madre job has been under cover ever since he escaped after being cornered and shot by two Los Angeles radio patrolmen, and that he has not attempted any further crimes since that time. They believe the man they have in custody merely read of the shopping bag bandit's methods of carrying on his crimes and decided to adopt them.

Every man on the Los Angeles Police department is particularly anxious to get the shopping bag thief because of the frightful condition of Patrolman Frank Meredith, whom he shot. Meredith is still helpless in the General Hospital and doctors say that little short of a miracle will prevent his being a helpless invalid, the bullet fired at him by the bandit having lodged in his spine.

Want Grownups At This PTA Show For Its Welfare Fund

Toto's Merry Marionettes of Pasadena will give two performances at 3:15 and 8 p.m. next Friday, November 4, at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium for the benefit of the P.T.A. welfare work.

The feature of the presentation is the three act play, "The Enchanted Scarecrow," in which are depicted the adventures of Calico Carl and Carrie, cousins of Raggedy Ann and Andy. There will also be a review of novelty acts, Lanky Looney, the double jointed Human Wonder; Toto and Babo, the two clowns, will all do their stunts. Of special interest is the dancing of the puppets.

At the close of the program the Buchanan quartet will give novelty numbers.

Children in the school have been manifesting their cooperation in selling tickets. Many expect to earn the privilege of attending a special back-stage performance after the close of the regular performance. Every child selling five adult tickets will be admitted to this special exhibition and will see the puppets at close range and also learn how the Marionettes are operated.

It is hoped and expected that the people of the community will show their interest in the welfare work of the P.T.A. by attending one of the performances.

Art League Members To Meet Monday

Call Goes Out To Those Enrolled As Student Members And As Patrons

By Henry Ivins Hawchurst
All registered students and patrons of the Art League are urged to meet at the City Hall next Monday evening, October 31, at 8 o'clock—so is the edict of the Board of Governors.

On Wednesday evening the League's Board of Governors held a pow-wow and made big medicine. The housing problem for the League is one of the paramount questions right now. In other words the League is all dressed up and no place to go.

At Monday's meeting we hope to have a great big pow-wow of all the tribe who are interested in the study and fostering of art in our community. We hope that all of the ambitious students and patrons will get together and make such a big medicine that the Boards contribution, in that line, will look like a pill among a shipload of cannon balls.

At our last meeting there were several who sponsored the idea of charging each student a nominal sum per month for his instructions.

Now, lets turn back the pages of THE NEWS to the issue of August fifth. Therein was published my first article proposing an Art League and to make the instruction of art in our community "as free as air." Now, when I saw the trend of some of our silver-tongued Board members towards a "pay as you enter" idea, I metaphorically got on my hind legs and protested. As Chairman of this Board I was without doubt plumb out of order, and everything, in putting in my protest before a motion was voted upon—I know a lot more about painting a picture than I do about parliamentary law—but here is the low-down . . . I'm going to fight for free instruction in art until the group of registered students vote otherwise.

As I said in my first article of August fifth, if after the students become advanced and desire professional models why then it will be up to them to chip in and pay the models' expenses.

It was with sincere regret that the Board of Governors felt obliged to negative Henry Coulter's mighty generous offer to produce one of his plays here at a benefit for the League. It just could not be done, first because there was not sufficient time to promote the advertising and publicity and secondly and of most importance the date upon which Mr. Coulter's play would have to be produced conflicted with other entertainments scheduled.

Here's a thought, for all of you good students and patrons—many may overlook this announcement for the Leagues get-together next Monday evening so, give those who you know are interested, a ring and remind them of it. It's most important for everyone to be on hand—the meeting needn't last but a little while.

Long Beach Realty Operator To Build Canyon Park Home

P. Callaghan, Long Beach realty operator and apartment house owner, has just purchased through Laura E. Cadmus, two lots on Woodland Road, in Canyon Park, and will shortly begin the erection there of a home for his family. Mr. Callaghan is the father-in-law of B. C. Maxwell, of Woodland Drive, and the owner and operator of six beach apartment houses.

Merchants Here Get Clean Score In Big Crusade

Not a Sierra Madre merchant was among the several hundred who fell into the clutches of the law because of false weights and measures and crooked scales during a campaign conducted by the county sealer of weights and measures.

In the pursuit of "short weight artists," 330 arrests were made and of this number 320 were convicted and fined, including dealers in groceries, meat, ice, gasoline, firewood and vegetables.

All the weights and measures in this city were inspected during the campaign and the city was given a 100 per cent score.

DISTINGUISHED FELLOW TOWNSMAN TO INTERPRET 21 BALLOT PROPOSITIONS

ONLY A comparatively few citizens will be prepared to properly discharge the obligation that will confront them when they open their ballots in the voting booths on November 8 and proceed to pass judgement upon the 21 Propositions to be voted upon.

On another page of this issue of THE NEWS advocates and opponents of the measures about which there is most controversy, interpret and advance arguments for and against these measures and voters may form an idea of their merits.

But THE NEWS is most happy to announce that it has arranged with E. W. Camp, of this city, eminent lawyer and chairman of the law enforcement committee of the American Bar Association, to prepare a brief synopsis of each one of the 21 measures, telling their intent and the effect of their operation, for the benefit of readers of THE NEWS who have not had the time or opportunity to give each of the proposals the thought that it requires. In each case Mr. Camp will pass his judgment upon the merits of the measure.

This article prepared especially for the readers of THE NEWS will appear in the next issue, Friday, November 4, under Mr. Camp's signature and this newspaper feels signally honored to present it.

Every voter who wishes to be well informed will want to read the article—perhaps to take it to the polls as a guide as he or she wades through the titles of the various propositions, many of which are meaningless to the average layman, if not actually misleading.

As a member of a committee of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Camp interpreted the ballot propositions for that body and his advice with respect to the merit or lack of it in the measure has determined the attitude of a number of organizations respecting them.

You will enjoy the interpretation of a distinguished lawyer and the advice of a disinterested fellow townsman.

Be sure to get your copy of THE NEWS next week—and always.

Aids Named For Bazaar At St. Rita's

Women of St. Rita's parish are now completely organized and intend to carry on for the success of the Bazaar to be held on November 18 and 19.

Mrs. A. Delvecci, general chair lady, has stressed the need of cooperation from the members of the parish and as a result has had the offer of many workers and at a meeting on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Delvecci announced the appointment of the following committees:

Serving tables, Miss Ruth Keller, Mrs. W. Barry, Mrs. L. Wynn, Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. Colbert, Mrs. C. Collins, Mrs. W. E. Craig, Miss Mattie Seeley, Mrs. E. Holliger, Mrs. W. Richards.

Serving in kitchen, Mrs. M. Kiggins, Mrs. W. Bradley, Mrs. F. Meyers, Mrs. L. Roe, Mrs. C. Penders, Mrs. H. Hinojos, Mrs. R. Armstrong and Mrs. J. Everhardy.

Fancy Work Booth—Mrs. J. Borradalle, Mrs. R. Fitzwilliams, Mrs. P. Ronan.

White elephant booth—Mrs. C. Cameron, Mrs. M. Moore, Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. W. E. Craig.

As usual, a turkey dinner will be served and the date for dinner will be on Saturday the 19th. Tickets will be on sale at the office of Woodson Jones and possibly one or two other locations.

Have A Good Time, But Don't Get Rough, Hallowe'en Orders

Through Chief McMillan the police department has given notice that rowdiness and destructive pranks will not be tolerated here on Monday evening—Hallowe'en.

"There will, of course, be no effort to interfere with wholesome fun," said McMillan last night, "and we hope the youngsters here will have barrels of it. But we propose to see that there is no property damage or rowdiness on the streets. In addition to four regular officers two extra men will be on the streets from sundown until 1 o'clock in the morning, each man being assigned to a particular district. A seventh man will be at headquarters to answer calls and receive complaints.

Fair Sex Is Featured In Art Exhibit

Wide Variety Of Canvases To Be Hung At Little Gallery's Second Showing

The second art exhibit of the season will open next Thursday evening, November 3, with a reception to the exhibiting artists at the Little Art Gallery at the City Hall. Mrs. Fred Griebenow, chairman, with her committee, Mesdames Alfred James Dewey, J. Borradalle, John H. Robertson, W. S. Hull and Henry Ivins Hawchurst, will be hostesses and will welcome visitors. Patronesses for the evening will be Miss Laura Estelle Cadmus and Mesdames Roland Adams, Leslie Gaze, Howard C. Lieben, S. M. McClelland, Ada M. Oswald, Phillip W. Senour, N. W. Tarr and H. B. Tuttle.

A variety of canvases by a number of well-known artists promises to make this exhibit one of the most interesting of the year.

Miss Alice Ring of Pomona, who has exhibited and studied in New York, and has been received in the Salon six times in succession, will be among the artists to exhibit. Miss Ring has lived in France and Holland a number of years and paints beautiful subjects in the Old World way.

Landscapes and figures by Miss Nellie E. Ziegler, who was awarded the first prize last year at the school of Fontainebleau in France, will be shown. Miss Zeigler has received several prizes in New York and Philadelphia.

Miss Merwin of Pasadena, has a reputation for still life, and Mrs. Force of Pasadena, is known for her canvases of flowers and landscapes. Much praise has been showered upon Mrs. E. Pletsch for portraits, who will be represented on the walls.

Twenty Six Priests Here For Retreat, Visited By Bishop

Twenty-six Spanish speaking priests of the Los Angeles-San Diego diocese attended a retreat at the Monte Oliva Monastery over the weekend and enjoyed a short visit from Bishop John J. Cantwell.

Services of the retreat were conducted in Spanish by Father Isidore Dwyer, C. P., a local Passionist missionary of wide experience. Father Isidore had labored as a missionary in Argentina, South America, for nearly ten years, he had acquired an insight into the Spanish character and fluency of their native language.

Women Here Enroll For GOP Ticket

Eighty Enlist For Assignments As Precinct And Election Workers

Tuesday morning, eighty women, members of the Women's Division of the Sierra Madre Hoover-Curtis Club, met at the residence of Mrs. Fred Hooker Jones on West Orange Grove avenue, to perfect their part in the great Women's Mobilization for Hoover which is sweeping the state.

Mrs. H. E. Allen, chairman, introduced as the first speaker Col. D. J. Brady, Col. Brady, sent from the speakers bureau in Los Angeles, gave a very concise, convincing talk on some of the main issues of the campaign, stressing particularly certain aspects which appeal directly to California women, including the protective tariff on California products.

He was followed by Mr. H. L. Sweet of Los Angeles who won the hearts of his audience at once by his quaint humor and his interesting handling of a usually dry subject, the distribution of campaign literature.

After the speakers had left to fill another engagement, the meeting resolved itself into a committee of the whole for enthusiastic enrollment of precinct and election workers. The mobilization pledge was passed and signed by all present except one or two who still felt the tug of old party affiliations and were not quite ready to sign at that time.

Mrs. Allen read most effectively a speech written by a California woman giving the reasons why this mobilization of women is taking place.

Mrs. Josephine E. Marr reported that at a large meeting of representatives from all over the county held in Los Angeles a few days ago, reports had been made of the requests pouring into headquarters for thousands of copies (Continued on Page Seven)

ALA's Gift Bazaar Proceeds Go Into Its Welfare Work

By Dorothy Shetler

Sierra Madre residents are invited to attend the Gift Bazaar sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary at 3 Kersting Court, Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29. There are many useful handmade articles for sale at a very reasonable price. In an interview with Mrs. Lillian Wheeler, much information about the affair was given.

Mrs. Wheeler is chairman for the Bazaar and reports the first day of the sale Thursday, October 27, will have a variety of home made candy for sale in conjunction with the pre-Christmas sale of dainty gifts. Saturday there will be a sale also of home cooked foods such as meat dishes, salads, cakes, cookies, baked beans and all the goodies always associated with Legion Auxiliary cookery sales. We hope to have this Bazaar a successful undertaking; for as is usual in the Auxiliary, all proceeds are used in some branch of welfare work.

Mrs. Roy Fickett, membership chairman, will be at the Bazaar on both days with application blanks. Here is an opportunity for eligible women to get information about the Auxiliary. Enrollment of a large membership to carry forward the civic, patriotic and welfare work will be the objective of the local unit. The Auxiliary is open to wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members and of men killed in the war or who have died since the conflict. Women who were enlisted in the army or navy, such as army nurses or navy "yeomanettes," are also eligible. To these women the A.L.A. offers many interesting activities and social contacts. Most of all, it offers them an opportunity to go forward with the men of the Legion in peace time service to the community, State and Nation.

Temple Officers Win Appreciation; All Are Re-elected

A. Platt was reelected as president of the advisory board of the Temple Beth Israel at a meeting at the Temple, Laurel avenue and Lima street, on Wednesday evening, R. Ashkenas will be vice-president for the coming year; Leon Keltz, secretary, and J. Krakower, treasurer. Cantor Schlossberg was elected to the office of recording secretary. With the exception of Cantor Schlossberg all officers and members of the board of directors were reelected.

A beautiful loving cup was presented to J. Krakower for five years of faithful service as treasurer of the church, and a vote of appreciation was extended all the officers for their loyalty and efficiency in the discharge of their offices for the past year.

Name Myers Agent Of Stabilization Bureau In This City

The County Stabilization of Employment Bureau yesterday asked City Business Manager Al S. Myers to assume the duties of registrar and contact agent in its relations between the bureau and the unemployed of Sierra Madre.

When assured that his designation would not conflict with any other service and that his appointment was agreeable alike to the bureau and the local unemployed, Mr. Myers accepted.

The association of unemployed men in Sierra Madre has appointed a committee that, all members having agreed, will recommend a man for each position of a public nature that is offered, so that unemployed will be rotated according to the responsibilities and requirements of the jobs.

Mr. Myers said he would be governed by the recommendations of this committee where county employment is allotted this city.

Manning Of Polls Here Is Arranged

Registrar Designates Locations And Certifies Election Officers

A communication designating the seven polling places to be used for the general election in Sierra Madre on November 8 and certifying the appointment of the election officers who will serve in each district, was received by City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt yesterday from the registrar of voters.

The polling places are the same as those used at the August primary election and most of the election officers also served at that time. The list of polling places and officers follows:

Precinct No. 1, polling place at 58 West Grand View avenue, has as its election officers R. O. Caution, C. E. Fredericks, Marie C. Lord, Minerva Rigney, Mrs. Ora Caskey and H. A. N. Addis.

Precinct No. 2, 83 North Sunnyside avenue—Mark D. Welscher, Sally Osgood, Jack Buchan, Patty Lovell, Madeline Smith and May Laidlaw.

Precinct No. 3, City Hall—H. B. White, Tillie Stimpfling, Sallie R. Sea, Virginia Roess, Edna Holland and Martha Willis.

Precinct No. 4, at Community House in City Park—Helen Hill, Minnie Arthur, Francis Eakman, Lillian Welch, Mildred Taylor and Agnes Tyree.

Precinct No. 5, 20 South Baldwin avenue—Marion Lees, Louella Walsworth, Ethel Davis, Edna Woodruff, Edwin Ward Jr., and Josephine E. Marr.

Precinct No. 6, 154 North Mt. Trail avenue—Ethel Hawks, Mrs. Grinnell, Margaret Senour, Iva Murray, Homer Tuttle and Edith Griffith.

Precinct No. 7, 444 Sturtevant Drive—Mrs. W. D. Richards, Maud Rogers, Steve Petzel, Elva M. Reavis, Grace L. Cox and Myrtle Heasley.

COUNTY TO SUE FOR DELINQUENT TAXES

County Tax Collector C. O. Welsh was given authority by the Supervisors on Wednesday to file suits to force the collection of more than $750,000 in delinquent personal taxes on automobiles, furniture, jewelry, etc., assessed against approximately 3200 persons.

Welsh announced suits would be brought at once in small claims courts, he delinquent personal property taxes reported August 1 amounted to more than a million dollars. About $300,000 has been collected since that time.

COMMITTEE ROUNDS UP BOOKS FOR VETERANS

Art Embree, chairman of the 18th district American Legion book committee, entertained committee members from the various towns in the district on Tuesday evening at Legion headquarters at the City Hall. To these members is allotted the work of collecting books and magazines for the U. S. Veterans hospitals. Coffee and doughnuts were served.

LIFE OF MANZANITA SAVED

Though Police Chief McMillan had been called to shoot Manzanita, prize horse of the Corum Trail Stables, following an accident, the life of the animal was saved by an operation and hundreds of Sierra Madreans will be delighted to know the steed will soon be back in service.

Election of officers and a report from Grand Chapter will take place November 7 at the regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Merits Of Proposals Discussed

Trust Deed And State Sales And Income Tax Debated At Woman's Club

Nearly the whole membership of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club heard a discussion on Wednesday of the trust deed initiative measure that will appear on the November ballot as Proposition No. 3.

E. W. Camp, of this city, explained the provisions of the measure to his hearers, pointing out its advantages and weaknesses and expressing the belief that as a rule it is not good policy to attempt to correct such matters as defects in the trust deed system now in vogue by means of an initiative. If, he said, the proposed corrective measures are later found faulty or unsatisfactory, they can be repealed or improved only in another State-wide election.

Mr. Camp said that obviously the fees provided in trust deed foreclosures were excessive, that the lack of provision for redemption seemed unfair and that the trust deed lures people into debt because it is much easier and more money can be raised on a trust deed than on a mortgage. The redemption clause contained in proposition No. 3 was a strong argument in its favor, Mr. Camp said, and it contained other worth while provisions, though stating that all foreclosures would be made the subject of court action.

State Senator Harry A. Chamberlain vigorously assailed the measure as contrary to the public interest and gave the reasons for his belief.

Senator Chamberlain declared this proposal to be the most vital one appearing upon the ballot on November 8 because about 95 per cent of the people were affected to a greater or lesser extent.

He said that as a member of the Bar Association he knew the proposal did not represent the attitude of nearly all the members of that organization and he regretted the matter was in any sense before the public as a "lawyer's bill."

Senator Chamberlain urged that the initiative is not the proper remedy for the correction of any evils that might exist in the present trust deed system and that certainly as the proposal is drawn, there were many serious objections to it.

He admitted that in some cases the fees charged by title companies and others may be a little more than they might be, but he contended in nearly every instance of foreclosure the lender had to pay.

Another contention of the Senator's was that banks, trust companies and similar institutions would lend only about 35 per cent of the value of the property on mortgages whereas they could lend anywhere from 40 to 60 per cent on trust deeds, a point to which Mr. Camp agreed.

The right and privilege of redemption was then discussed by Chamberlain. This right was more apparent than real, he said, for statistics show that only about 6 per cent of foreclosures are ever redeemed.

In the matter of deficiency judgments, Senator Chamberlain asserted that record shows that under trust deed procedure the percentage is only about 2 per cent and that under Mortgages 15 per cent.

Senator Chamberlain thanked Mr. Camp for the very fair manner in which he had treated the subject and as lawyers both declared the time allotted was not enough to treat and discuss every phase of so vital a proposal.

Mr. Ellison of the California Taxation Improvement Association of Los Angeles, spoke against Proposition No. 9. Mr. Ellison pointed out that by shifting the responsibility of the taxes on elementary and high schools to the State with an increased rate of $10 per pupil to be paid the school by the State would not lessen the taxes that the property owners must pay. There is no clause in the proposition that can prevent the officials from levying additional taxes, if the occasion or desire should arise, Mr. Ellison stated.

As he saw the situation the proposition could be of no benefit to anyone other than large land holders and large real estate concerns. The fact remains, according to Mr. Ellison, that the people of the state must pay the additional $10 per pupil—from where else could the money come?

Mrs. W. J. Lawless also spoke on Proposition No. 9.

Shipping Measure Held Important To Welfare Of State

Realizing its importance to California's position in the shipping world, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the proposed amendment containing the constitutional provision exempting from taxation all commercial vessels of more than 50 tons burden when registered at a California port. The measure will appear on the November ballot as Amendment No. 28.

This provision was first inserted in the State Constitution about 20 years ago. At that time almost no ships were registered in California ports.

As a result of the passage of this amendment many ships were registered during the War and afterward as Los Angeles, San Francisco and other California ports.

This provision expires in 1935, unless it is renewed, and will result in driving practically all commercial vessels away from California registry.

REVENUE BILL OF DEMOCRATS MAKES POOR PAY, SAYS EVANS

Every time a person licks a three cent postage stamp, pays an extra penny tax on a gallon of gasoline, and otherwise empties his purse in the payment of tax on the necessities of life, he is paying tribute to the wisdom of Democratic leaders who now control Congress, according to William E. Evans, Republican Congressman of this district.

Mr. Evans who is seeking reelection to his post in Congress which he has filled six years, says in a letter to local citizens, that the present revenue bill requiring tax on various commodities is a sample of Democratic legislation. During his service to this district Mr. Evans has consistently voted against tax on food, clothing and vital necessities of life.

The present revenue bill enacted by a Democratic majority places the burden of tax on the poor man who can least afford it, Mr. Evans said.

No. 11—HUNTINGTON BEACH OIL

YES By E. G. CONRAD, Mayor of the City of Huntington Beach.

A majority "YES" vote on Proposition No. 11 will grant to the city of Huntington Beach the tidelands within the city limits, the same as other coast cities, and will open the way for a $2,000,000 development project which will stimulate business, create jobs for probably 500 men and insure a $100,000 bonus and a handsome oil royalty to the public treasury to relieve the taxpayers of the state. It will save to the people of Huntington Beach and the state of California a portion of the vast oil pool now being drained to the profit of the Standard Oil company. The measure gives the city the right to develop its own bathing beach and yacht harbor.

Former Governor Favors Granting Tidelands To City

Former Governor Friend W. Richardson, after a personal survey of the tidelands at Huntington Beach, has announced himself in favor of Proposition No. 11, granting tidelands there to the city.

"There are 16 wells belonging to the Standard Oil Company now operating on the edge of this small strip of beach and the area involved has been unfitted for recreational development," he said. "The effort to defeat No. 11 seems directed at protecting the 16 wells already there, and preventing the drilling of wells to offset them, in which the city and state might share."

Candidates Speak At Headquarters Of Roosevelt Club

Albert Hadley, candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket, and Mrs. Eileen Cardiff, candidate for the Assembly from the 48th Assembly district, were speakers at the Tuesday afternoon meeting at Democratic headquarters, 3 Kersting Court. Mrs. Woodson F. Jones was hostess for the afternoon, assisted by other leading Democratic women of Sierra Madre.

Plans are completed for next Tuesday's affair at which Mrs. R. W. Solomon will be hostess. Anyone interested in hearing the Democratic speakers may attend. Mrs. Cardiff will present her stand on issues of special interest to women and children.

Democrats To Hear Discussions Of The Ballot Proposals

Several of the amendments which will be voted upon at the coming election will be discussed Saturday night at a meeting to be held in Democratic Headquarters, 3 Kersting Court.

Proposition No. 3, known as the Trust Deed measure, No. 9, referring to changes in the school taxes, as well as the other propositions affecting the taxpayers, will be presented by John Schaub, member of the Pasadena jury which recently debated these measures, and Harry A. Goldman of Los Angeles.

Every one who is interested in these amendments is cordially invited to attend the meeting which will open at 8 o'clock.

Announcement is made that the Democratic Headquarters will be open evenings until after the campaign is over, and a radio has been installed, whereby National and local speakers may be heard.

MISSIONARY IN SOUTH AMERICA WILL SPEAK

Mrs. Harold Tuggey of the Orinoco River Mission will be guest speaker for the afternoon at the meeting of the Missionary Society of Bethany Church next Tuesday. Mrs. Tuggey has spent many years in Venezuela and other South American countries and her talk promises to be one of much interest.

Miss Charlotte Porter will conduct devotions and several messages and letters from missionaries will be read. Luncheon will be served at noon. All ladies of the community are cordially invited.

WHAT THEY SAY

ABOUT THE CONTROVERSIAL PROPOSITIONS ON THE NOVEMBER 8 BALLOT

Measures Interpreted by Experts

No. 1—WRIGHT ACT REPEAL

YES By BYRON C. HANNA, Former Chief Deputy District Attorney Los Angeles County.

California's future prosperity demands repeal of the Wright Act, bringing to life our grape, hop and barley industries, restoring $250,000,000 in annual returns when national prohibition is modified. It will reduce your taxes and relieve unemployment. Unless the Wright Act is repealed California will remain bone dry regardless of modification or repeal of the Volstead Act and the Eighteenth Amendment.

Byron C. Hanna

NO By MABEL L. DORSEY, Commander in Chief Minute Women, Wright Act Supporters.

Vote "NO" on measure No. 1. As long as the Eighteenth Amendment is in the constitution, the Wright Act is necessary for state enforcement. Repeal would divert to the federal treasury fines now collected by municipalities, counties and the state. Every thinking person knows there would not be enough federal officers to police the more than 1000 miles of California territory should this act carry. Enforcement pays in dollars and cents as well as in morality and decency. Making intoxicating liquor more easily accessible is not going to benefit humanity in any form.

No. 2—SALOON REGULATION

YES By BYRON C. HANNA, Former Chief Deputy District Attorney Los Angeles County.

By prohibiting the saloon and providing for stringent and sane regulation of sale of light wines and beer, Proposition No. 2 simply is the application to the state of California of the principle that has proved tremendously successful in promoting temperance in countries and provinces which have repealed national prohibition after having been convinced of its failure from an economic and social standpoint.

NO By MABEL L. DORSEY, Commander in Chief Minute Women, Wright Act Supporters.

Vote "NO" on measure No. 2, for such a measure will be of no effect and in violation of the constitution as long as the Eighteenth Amendment is a part thereof. It will legalize the sale of liquor only in the event the Eighteenth Amendment is repealed. The framer of this measure thinks he has sufficiently clouded the issue by promising "no saloons" and promising state control so that the voters will be fooled into voting "yes" on measure No. 2.

No. 3—TRUST DEED REFORM

YES By Geo. W. Rochester, State Senator.

This proposition must carry to assure a return of real estate and building activity, encourage home ownership, and protect investors in building and loan certificates. It affords property owners 12 months to redeem their property. Mortgage money available in 40 states will also be available in California. Banks will always loan when the security is offered. This is your opportunity to eliminate unjust trust deeds, deficiency judgments and protect your home.

Geo. W. Rochester

NO By George A. Schneider, Lecturer on Real Estate Finance, U. of S. C., Author.

It would bring about a drastic change in the state's foreclosure law, with direful results. It requires foreclosed owners to pay rent or be dispossessed. Forbids private adjustment between borrower and lender. Reduces renewals on present loans at least 20 per cent. Increases lawsuits. Stifles development and reduces values. Its effect would be to convert every foreclosure into a lawsuit.

George A. Schneider

No. 5—RACETRACK INITIATIVE

YES By A. J. UNIAK, Chairman Southern California Campaign Committee.

This bill will tax racing, which now is providing no state tax; will place racing associations under jurisdiction of a commission appointed by the governor; will provide strict regulations, and will be a direct benefit to every taxpayer, farmer, stock raiser, fruit grower and veteran in the state, through distributions of funds received from license fees.

NO By FRANK M. LARKIN, Executive Secretary California State Church Federation.

Initiative measure No. 5, called "Racing," is a measure to legalize gambling, and its title is misleading. Horse racing, or any other kind of racing is legal in California now. This act is simply a cloak for gambling under the title of "Certificate System" or "Optional System," which is nothing more or less than the old pari-mutuel gambling measure, defeated in 1926.

No. 9—INCOME, SALES TAX

YES By W. H. DAUM, Past President California Real Estate Association.

The unfair burden of government cost which falls on real estate and buildings has destroyed the desire to own homes and occupy the lands. Amendment No. 9 must pass to rehabilitate the faith of the citizen in the occupancy and use of the lands before prosperity can return to California.

NO By California Taxation Improvement Association.

Vote NO. It increases taxes. It calls for state personal income and nuisance sales taxes, necessitates additional state tax on ALL property. This constitutional amendment thwarts budgetary control of school costs, permits pyramiding of $50,000,000 and more new expenditures by state, counties and districts. Opposed by scores of organizations, including teachers, farmers, property owners, labor, business and professions.

No. 14—TAXATION OF VESSELS

YES By Richard W. Barrett, legislative representative, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. (No organized opposition).

Proposition Number 14 on the November ballot is a re-enactment of the present provision governing the taxation of ships registered in California ports. The only change is to extend the law for a period of 20 years. The amendment is sponsored by the Los Angeles and San Francisco Chambers of Commerce and was unanimously approved by both houses of the legislature.

There is no opposition. This law limits the taxation of deep sea shipping to state purposes. It does not deprive the cities or counties of any present revenues. Without it, however, the state would stand to lose considerable revenue from ships now registered in California ports.

Its enactment is necessary, since the other Pacific states—Oregon and Washington—already exempt ships from local taxation, and it would only be necessary for California ships to change their port of registration to a northern port to avoid such local taxation. They would, in fact, be compelled to do so, since they could not compete on the high seas with vessels exempt from local taxation.

Richard W. Barrett

No. 16—TAX LIENS

YES By Edward D. Landels, secretary, California Land Title Association. (No organized opposition).

Proposition No. 16 provides that taxes shall cease to be a lien at the end of 30 years. It does not affect real property taxes levied since 1895. The measure should be passed because in some counties present property owners are compelled to pay taxes levied as far back as 1895 although no effort has been made to collect them for two generations and although the property may have changed hands many times since then.

And night-owls hoot in forest trees,
Bright jack-o-lanterns glow with light,
Inviting witching mysteries;
Though eumenides knock at our doors,
Challenging us to fight our fate,
We who fearless open them,
See kindly spirits at our gate.

Huntington Beach Measure Is Stripped Of Color By Hemet Editor

John E. King, publisher of the "Hemet News" and one of the best known editors in the State, has analyzed the Huntington Beach oil measure that will appear upon the November ballot as Proposition No. 11 in what seems to be a very impartial and disinterested manner. In this week's issue of "The News," Mr. King says:

"Proposition No. 11 appears to be wholly a local matter, affecting only the city of Huntington Beach. The officials and leading business men of that place want permission to drill wells on beach property already rendered unfit for park purposes by wells in operation by major oil companies. The act does not apply to any other city or to any other part of the coast line.

"It would not be a despoilation of the California beaches, as alleged by some of the opponents of the initiative, since the big oil companies already have wells in operation on the beach in that city. Apparently the opposition to the measure comes largely from the owners of these wells.

"Control of a considerable portion of Huntington Beach's shore land already is in the hands of major oil companies, which have extracted $7,000,000 in oil and gas therefrom without paying a dollar of royalty to either city or state, and in addition have ruined half of the beach line of the city for recreational development. These corporations are endeavoring to maintain this control by an active campaign against No. 11, using the false and misleading appeal of 'Save the Beaches.'

"The News contends that the beaches should belong to the people and not be exploited by any corporation at the expense of the public. Huntington Beach is asking merely for title to its tidelands, hoping through this ownership to break the stranglehold certain major oil companies now have on the city's ocean front. It is a matter of common justice and fairness to a neighboring small city to give its people the right to control its own ocean front.

"The News believes in being neighborly, and if the citizens of Huntington Beach want to develop these wells it is their own business and morally the rest of us have no right to deny them the privilege. We urge voting 'yes' on No. 11."

Hot Lead

FOURTEEN years ago a million and a quarter Americans were pushing forward through the mud and debris into the Meuse-Argonne where whole divisions of infantry melted away before the big guns of the enemy. Recall the supreme effort of that million and a quarter Americans, yourself perhaps among them, were putting forth for America then.

This year the American Legion is pushing forward to serve the community, State and Nation with the same determination that impelled us on to victory on November the 8th, 1918. That determination to 'Serve In Peace as In War.'

The great program set forth this year needs the cooperation of every American citizen and the coordination of every American Service organization in this community and every community in America. Here are listed some of the activities included in our program for this fiscal year:

Care of our sick and disabled veterans; an aeronautics expansion program; an all inclusive Americanism program; an athletic program; a Boy Scout program; a Child Welfare program; Conservation and fire prevention; mobilization for disaster and relief; junior baseball; National defense; Penal institution cooperation; A welfare, employment and relief program; A Rehabilitation program.

These activities with all of their many sub-headings are now under way in Sierra Madre. Every American Citizen and Service organization will find an outlet for patriotism and an opportunity for real service if he or she will just ask the man who wears a Legion button, "We Serve in Peace as in War."

The Chicago Art Institute, and Mrs. Arthur Wurtel, who has studied in Providence and whose pictures are received by any jury, will also be among those exhibiting.

Magnificent criticism was given the work of Mrs. Lily Ferguson at her last exhibition at the Carmelita Gardens, Pasadena. She has received first prizes at the Stockton Fairs, Chicago and many other places where she has exhibited.

Of note is the work of Blanche Collet Wagner, president of the National League of American Pen Women. Other artists, whose names have been withheld will complete the exhibit.

Everyone in the community interested in art is cordially invited.

Proposition No. 3 wears a false face!

Masquerading as "relief," as "remedial," as "beneficial" it is not what it seems.

Vote NO

It is not designed to give relief to any one, but to convert every foreclosure into a law suit.

It will increase deficiency judgments by making them automatic if sale bid does not cover all charges including attorneys' fees.

The pretended protection of the right to redeem is destroyed by compelling the owner to pay rent or be dispossessed in the event of foreclosure.

It will increase foreclosures by making renewals and new loans difficult and costly.

The rights of borrower and lender will be clouded by the many confusing provisions of the measure.

Elect Republican Assemblymen from Southern California

It is imperative that a solid Republican delegation be elected to the State Assembly from Los Angeles County and the Southland, to insure Assembly control by Southern California.

This will mean election of Walter J. Little, Los Angeles County, as Speaker, and this section, for the first time in the State's history, will have fair division of tax funds, appropriations and legislation. Democrats are fighting to defeat Walter J. Little and other Republican candidates for Assembly in this County.

It is to the material interest of the 48th Assembly District that the Republican nominee for Assembly be elected.

Elect a split delegation and the North will choose the Speaker, capture important committees, dominate tax funds, appropriations and legislation.

THIS IS A REAL MENACE!

Clothes For Needy Will Be Supplied

Government Garments To Be Distributed Here Through
The Red Cross

Sierra Madre Red Cross relief workers are just completing a survey to ascertain the quantity of clothing necessary during the next six months for those out of work and in need. The government has provided for the distribution of a large quantity of ready-made clothing to the "needy and distressed people of the United States."

The trusteeship of the American Red Cross for this distribution requires that there shall be "no consideration other than 'need.' Great care has to be exercised in the distribution of this clothing and delegates of the different organizations affiliated with the Red Cross are assisting in the survey now being made.

Underwear for all ages, hosiery and other garments are being furnished and the quantity ordered is to be determined by the number of needy families requiring aid.

Mrs. H. H. Holland, in charge of production work, reports that through the cooperation of Roy H. Davis of the Davis and Jones Dress Factory, the owners and employees who are working there have donated the use of the machines and labor in the cutting and making up of the cloth on hand into the different garments at no cost whatsoever to the Red Cross. This will take care of a great deal of the labor which would have had to be done in the homes and give the volunteer workers of the many organizations pledged to support this work, time to do other forms of relief.

In last week's News, mention was made of a grant of $200 from the National organization, the News stating this money was to be used for the promotion of the annual roll-call. The money received is to be used for relief work. It is a well known and established fact that the annual roll-calls in Sierra Madre are conducted on a purely volunteer basis and that a very small amount of money is expended in the work of obtaining the annual membership.

It is interesting to know that Sierra Madre has received from the National Organization more money than was remitted last fall. Today the lunches and milk being furnished to children in the schools are being paid for from money sent here from Washington. This is the first time the Sierra Madre chapter, in its 17 years of existence, has ever received any outside aid and it is hoped that with the cooperation of the people of this city the local relief and welfare work can be carried on and be supported by the people of Sierra Madre.

The regular monthly director's meeting will be held next Monday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the school house, at which time plans will be completed for the putting on of the roll-call and a further program of relief work.

Mrs. Leslie Gaze reports an increasing interest in the Red Cross Exchange. A number of people have brought in useful and artistic articles of their own handiwork which they desire to sell, this service being a part of the local relief work. A first sale of the goods will be conducted this (Friday) afternoon, with Mrs. Gaze in charge. All those who have contributions are urged to communicate with Mrs. Gaze, phone 2323.

WORKERS GREETED BY NEW CHIEFS OF GREAT UTILITY

Employees of the Southern California Edison company, listening in on a broadcast over the company's private telephone system, were greeted Wednesday afternoon by their newly-elected chiefs, Harry J. Bauer, upper left, chairman, and George C. Ward, upper right, president. The addresses were broadcast from the Edison building in Los Angeles, through a central station at Alhambra and out to the receiving stations in the 55,000 square miles of Edison territory. The diagram shows some of the 42 points at which the broadcast was received.

Associated Trade Bodies Opposed To Trust Deed Measure

Directors of the San Gabriel Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce at a meeting last Wednesday adopted a resolution calling upon its members and friends to oppose Ballot Proposition No. 3, relative to trust deeds.

The resolution expressed the opinion that the measure "was loosely and faultily drawn, and its provisions would work disastrously in the up-building of our several communities." It concluded as follows:

"Therefore we recommend to our several Chambers of Commerce a thorough investigation of the law, with the idea of urging their membership to vote against the measure."

A. H. Morosco will speak on "The Responsibility of the Citizen," at the monthly meeting of the Association to be held in Temple Community Church, in Temple City next Tuesday evening at 6:30. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served by the women of the church. There will be an open discussion of the 21 measures that will come before the voter at the election of November 8.

ARLISS TO REMAIN AT TOWER THEATRE

The great George Arliss picture now showing at the Tower Theatre in Pasadena, has been playing to capacity houses at practically every performance and at many it has been necessary to display the "full house" sign. The Tower management announced last night that at the request of patrons the picture will be continued for another week.

Veterans To Celebrate With Dance

In keeping with the times, the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will celebrate by giving a "hard times" dance and card party on Armistice night, November 11, at the Woman's Club House.

There will be nothing formal about the affair and the whole town is invited to come and frolic with the veterans and their friends. Old clothes will be the vogue and one may mask or not as prizes are to be awarded for the best costumes.

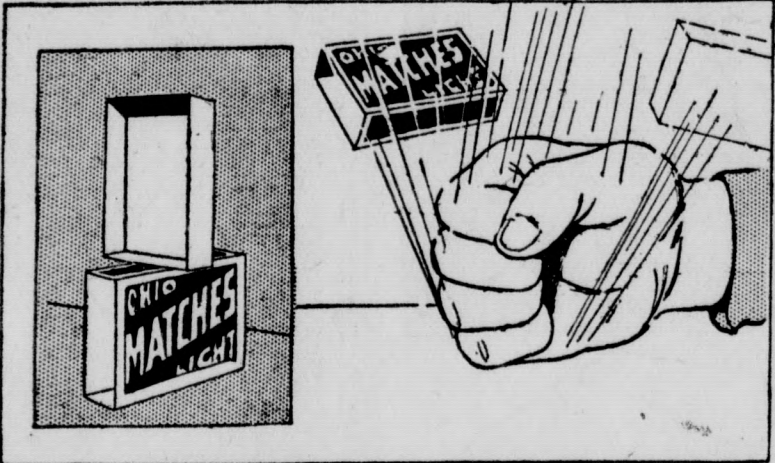

Refreshments will be served and those whose do not care to dance may play cards.

And a real torrid orchestra with plenty of variety and pep will fill the air with snappy dance music. A good time and a happy evening may be anticipated by all who reserve the evening of November 11th.

The News Printery is equipped for every kind of printing.

TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will L. Lindhorst

TRICK OF UNSMASHABLE MATCH BOX

Press two opposite corners of the cover of an ordinary penny match box so that it is slightly thrown out of square. Bring the box before your audience, stand the cover on its side, place the drawer upright on top of the cover, as shown in the drawing, and ask some one to try to crush it with a blow of the hand. It will be found that the two parts of the box fly in separate directions when the hand comes in contact with them.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

THE moustache epidemic has attacked the fire and police departments, as you will observe if you notice the upper lips of many firemen—provided you can see real well.

One wise cracking fireman says the speeches by Hoover and Roosevelt are not much different from our own local situation, the only difference being that the figures quoted by the President and Candidate are uncountable by an ordinary fireman. Harlan Gerlach asked Tom Schwartz how much a billion dollars was, and Tom said that that is the amount we will take in from the sale of our Christmas dance tickets. "Oh," said Harlan, "it's that all it is, what's the use of Hoover and Roosevelt getting sore at each other."

About six or seven of the firemen attended the San Gabriel Firemen's meeting at Azusa last Thursday and naturally some of them stopped at the "headquarters" on their return. They reported a very good meeting, but also said that if Sierra Madre had not been there in full blast, the meeting would have been a flop. This was the poorest attended meeting of this association, due to the interest taken in the Presidential election. It is hard to get men away from their radios. Our civilization still enjoys a good fight. Our audiences at the Council meetings prove this. Quite a few firemen are already getting in trim for the big dance that is coming. At Captain Swanson's First Aid practice, he has no trouble at all getting volunteers for his artificial respiration class.

Elaborate preparations are being made for our dance this year. The date will be set later. The same peppy music, and this alone will induce the feet to travel. Many people are looking forward to this grand and glorious time, and requests are already coming in, asking if we are going to hold this noted affair. Again it gives promise of being the biggest event of the year in Sierra Madre.

The town has been zoned, with certain men to cover each district, so each house within Sierra Madre will be approached by a fireman selling tickets for the party. The proceeds will all be used for the Christmas tree and treat and if there should be an excess, it will be used for charitable purposes.

A building directly across from the City Hall has been procured through the efforts of Mr. Humphries for our Toy Shop, and the repairmen are not at work.

Oh, by the way, the Fire's Out.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoker Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Col. and Mrs. H. B. Hersey and Gale Little spent an enjoyable day on Saturday at the lodge of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Osborne in the Big Tujunga Canyon.

H. R. Coit of 270 Grove street, has been confined to his bed for a few days this week from a badly sprained back. He fell on Monday when the chair, on which he was standing while fixing a window at his home, slipped. He is able to be up and around again.

Mrs. M. R. Englander and son, Herman, of 642 North Auburn avenue, were guests of Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish at the Euterpe Opera Reading Club on Tuesday at the Biltmore. Following the performance of "Aida" luncheon was enjoyed.

Miss Pauline Bondurant of Portland, Ore., cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, was a guest at the Jones home, 124 East Alegria avenue, on Friday evening. Miss Bondurant is connected with the United Airways and flew South for a visit of a week in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Artzt of 343 Grove street, have returned to their home from Long Beach, where they have been spending sometime since the tragic death of Mr. Artzt's sister, Mrs. Cora Nelson. Mrs. Nelson was killed while crossing the street in a pedestrian zone near her home on October 5. She was born in Missouri and is survived by one brother, Mr. Artzt, and four sisters.

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Wilson of East Central avenue, attended the polo game last Sunday at Fontana. Mrs. Wilson was the winner of first prize in the 75 yard stake race for women and captured third prize in the Ladies' egg race. She rode "Wings" one of the horses from the Wilson stables.

The Girl Scouts are sponsoring a pet show to be held on Saturday, November 5, at Scout Headquarters, 505 South Oak Knoll avenue, Pasadena. The pets exhibited must be owned by the scouts. All types of pets from dogs to elephants may be entered. Ribbons will be awarded as prizes.

Mrs. Juliette Braumann of 247 North Hermosa avenue, was one of the members in the cast of "School Play," a religious play, presented in one of the larger churches in Pasadena on Thursday evening. Mrs. Braumann has written and directed a number of religious plays and is well-known in Sierra Madre for her spiritual work.

The California Fruit Growers Exchange

A Cooperative Marketing Organization
Owned by 13,203 Citrus Growers

NOT by chance has one growers' organization persisted and grown until its membership embraces three out of every four citrus growers in California and Arizona.

Without the California Fruit Growers Exchange the industry would never have survived the conditions existing at the time of its organization in 1893. Because of it, the industry has grown from practically nothing to California's second largest.

The aggregate figures of the citrus industry, today emphasize the need of responsible leadership as expressed by the Exchange.

Over half a billion dollars is invested in citrus properties in California and Arizona. Sixteen thousand growers own the quarter of a million acres planted to orange, lemon and grapefruit trees. 160,000 people are directly dependent on this industry for their livelihood.

The dominant position of the Exchange in this industry, places a serious responsibility on every Exchange grower and employee. They cannot act on "snap judgment" or resort to opportunist tactics. Their course must be one determined by sound judgment and careful weighing of the facts. Too much is at stake to follow a policy of expediency.

The Exchange, above all, cannot be content merely with taking the market as it finds it. It must go a step farther and do what no other marketing agency of lesser size can attempt to do: It must make the market.

Hence Exchange distribution has constantly been expanded, improved and perfected. Sunkist advertising has been employed to keep demand in harmony with production. Every forward-looking movement in the industry has been initiated by Exchange growers.

Exchange growers hold direct rein on the policies and administration of their marketing organization. They know that its destiny depends wholly upon the service the Exchange renders its membership and its customers.

The Exchange stands solely on its ability to serve the true interests of the industry better than any existing agency. Today, more than ever, it merits and needs the active support of all growers, bankers, business men, and the public in general. From their united efforts will result better control of distribution, more energetic merchandising and increased consumer demand.

Sunkist

ORANGES • LEMONS • GRAPEFRUIT

THE CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS EXCHANGE is a cooperative, non-profit, growers' marketing organization whose more than 13,203 members represent more than 75% of the entire California and Arizona industry, marketers of Sunkist Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit. Through 211 local associations the Exchange's marketing facilities are available to every California and Arizona citrus grower. Get membership information from your nearest association or district exchange, or write Growers Service Bureau, Box 530, Station C, Los Angeles.

Select Cast For Showing Captive Man

Local Playwright's Vehicle
Will Be Presented Here
On Tuesday Night

"The Captive Man," by Henry Gordon, local playwright, will be presented in the auditorium of the Sierra Madre Public School, Tuesday evening, November 1st, by the Sierra Madre Community Players.

The author of this pleasing comedy needs no introduction to dramatic circles of Southern California. The play is a sex vehicle presented from a new and captivating angle. It carries a thrill from start to finish. Its subtle implications and psychological conclusions are of interest to the modernist. The cast has been chosen with care.

Donald Bennet, the analytical lover, is ably portrayed by Selwyn Myers.

Jacqueline, a tempting morsel, Cathern McClelland.

Lila, the sophisticate who longs for "culchar," Helen Hill.

Charlie, who loves toothsome morsels (the original go-getter) Guy Rihard.

Mrs. Burton, a typical landlady who has done well in trusting herself to the capable, Mrs. F. L. C. Roess.

Mr. Coburn, from Boston, who carries his dignity nobly, and is interested in sex, editorially speaking, John Osgood.

Phil Hawkins, a new photographer, Francis Eakman.

Bill, his assistant who assists ably, John Gray.

The interesting comedy is directed by Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger who always "puts things over with a punch."

A. L. A. Activities

By Dorothy Shetler

PRESIDENT BARKER spent last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Lake Elsinore. She said she had a perfectly scrumptious time. Once upon a time when Yours Truly was there, she saw a fellow dive into the lake and land on his head. First aid, ambulance and hospital was next in order with the usual excitement. That sort of spoiled our scrumptious time. The second meeting of the girls eligible for Junior A.L.A. membership was Saturday, October 22. Twelve girls took part in the meeting and the social time. Betty Wilson and Georgine (Twin) Norris won prizes. Mrs. Florence Jensen had charge of pop-corn operations. On Saturday, November 5, the initiation of members and installation of officers will be an interesting ceremony. Parents, if you want your girls to be a part of this new organization, sign up for them so that they may join with their chums, when an out-of-town Junior Auxiliary will have charge and put our youngsters through their paces.

Sierra Madre Unit was chosen to be hostesses with the Arcadia Unit for the 18th district meeting in November. All members be sure and reserve this occasion. Don't let a half dozen "stand-bys" shoulder the whole job. The more the merrier and a job more easily done.

Two of our members have joined the Pasadena night school class in gymnasium work. Why—oh maybe to retain that school-girl complexion, or to keep their youthful figure, maybe to intensify their agility, perhaps just for fun. The Sergeant-at-Arms is joining for all those reasons, also to keep up with her carrot-topped partner, the Marshal, although our intention is not to display a black and blue thumb, (not broken but badly bent) as the Marshal has been doing. It seems that she thought you pushed a basket-ball the same way marbles are shot.

In next week's column, we hope to have some interesting information about a new branch of our publicity work. All lectures, vocalists, elocutionists, musicians and high pressure speakers, come gather around. Do you think you can croon over the radio, or make a magnificent speech? O.K. you are the bambino we want.

Alas, your infallible conductor of this T.N.T. column has to make a correction concerning the time of the arrival in California of our 2nd vice-president, mis-stated in last week's column. She came in 1915 to see the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, making her trip occur nearer 17 than 26 years ago. Nine years is a lot of difference, specially if you had to spend it in eating okra.

There is less than a week remaining for the A.L.A. to sell its quota of Armistice Day foot-ball tickets. We could sure use that $25 prize in our welfare work. There is $500 to be divided among the Legion and the Auxiliary. Some Post and Unit will be prize winners, why not us?

Have you made any plans for your costume for the Depression Dance or will you just wear your everyday clothes? Some folks say "they don't need to prepare a Hard-Times get-up, they wear it every day." The tickets are now on sale anywhere you see a Legionnaire or A.L.A. gal. Only costs 35c for a whole evening of cards, dancing and fun. It's a great idea this Frolic—no marcel or shoe shine needed. Just forget to iron your gown and the men have an excuse for not shaving for a week or so. The orchestra is a wow, lots of hot-cha music, with plenty of dreamy waltz numbers for Maw and Paw. The "notorious depression" will be a nonentity at the Woman's Club House on Armistice night. Our costumes will be nondescript but the fun will be nonpareil.

Now is the time to bring in new members and renew old memberships. This coming year will make great demands on the auxiliary and with increased memberships, the going shouldn't be so rough. All eligible women are urgently requested to join the big parade of Auxiliary activities. Your energy will be a big factor in relieving distress among the veterans. Service comes first in the Auxiliary. Let us band ourselves together "for mutual helpfulness."

Mobilizing Women For President

Local Woman Make Vice-Chairman In New State-Wide Campaign Drive

The challenge of Republican women of Los Angeles county to mobilize the women of California for President Hoover, has gone out to the other counties of the State and there has been an enthusiastic response. Already ten counties in Northern and Southern California have accepted the challenge. The first challenge went out from the women of this Assembly district and the first acceptance came from the women of Palo Alto, the President's home town.

This mobilization crusade was started under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Green, director of the Women's division of the Republican State committee. She has appointed Mrs. Walter D. Thurber as chairman of the California Women's mobilization for Hoover and Mrs. Jessica H. Wright of Sierra Madre as vice-chairman.

This work of mobilization is rapidly going ahead with the women of Fresno, Yolo, Orange, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Monterey, Santa Clara, and Santa Cruz counties already having accepted the challenge sent out by the women of Los Angeles county. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Thurber hope within a few days to challenge other states and make this mobilization crusade for Hoover a Nation-wide affair. This is a woman to woman campaign, according to Mrs. Thurber. The women have written their own literature and while there are many prominent club and society women enlisted, the great majority of those rallying to the Hoover cause are homemakers.

"The women feel," said Mrs. Thurber, "that the homes of America would have to suffer years of privation if we change administrations now and have to wait for untried leaders to be trained. President Hoover must be retained."

Merchants Vote To Use Only Best Form Of Public Appeal

So that there shall be no wastage or lost effort in Inglewood's advertising, the Chamber of Commerce and merchants of that city have voted to confine their advertising exclusively to local newspaper columns. A survey conducted by the Chamber of Commerce revealed that a division of advertising costs among shopping guides and other media added greatly to the cost of reaching the public without anything like an adequate return. Also it was found that the buying public much preferred to read its advertising in the newspaper—and that it was most effective when properly displayed there.

IN YOUR GARDEN

WHEN home gardeners become particularly interested in a flower, it is usually the cue for greater interest also by plantmen and the ultimate result is improvement.

Ranunculus has become not only a garden flower but is grown extensively by commercial growers for cut flower purposes. Plant the tuber claws downward about two inches deep and from three and four inches apart. A void excessive moisture during the growing season, but as blooming time approaches the plants require plenty of water. Partial shade will prolong the blooming season and tend to lengthen the stem.

Other bulbous plants for fall and winter growing are tulips and hyacinths, both of which should be planted to a depth of six to seven inches where the winters are mild.

A bulbous plant which is little known and that is beginning to attract great attention is Nerine Sarniensis, commonly known as Guernsey Lily. It is a beautiful flower of delightful rose-red color, the foliage resembling that of the Amaryllis. Another lovely bulb plant is the Sprekelia or Jacobean Lily—the flowers are a bright crimson, with narrow spreading petals. It is also closely allied to the Amaryllis.

For background and cut flowers as well, plant Ixias. These grow on stems 12 to 18 inches long, requiring the same culture as frezias. A new race of Sparaxis has been recently developed, the flowers of these being slightly larger than Ixias and a great range of colors with some very striking red shades.

KEEPING UP THE WILD FLOWER HABIT IS GOOD

The Olympic games during the summer served as a splendid impetus to all gardeners to beautify every backyard, every lawn, every bit of space that could be planted to flowers, offering to the visitors to the games untold floral beauty. This certainly has set a precedent on the coast for a widespread planting program

Tubbs Wins Strong Support In Fight For Senatorship

Declaring that "a progressive and politically independent young man" is to be preferred as California's United States Senator to "a reactionary and vacillating opportunist, or a fanatical zealot," the San Diego Sun, leading progressive Scripps-Howard newspaper, has just announced its unqualified support of Tallant Tubbs, Republican United States Senatorial nominee. In an editorial The Sun says, in part:

"California is confronted with a simple and clear-cut issue in the present three-cornered campaign for the United States Senatorship.

"That issue is, whether a progressive and politically independent young man shall be elected—

"Or whether either a reactionary and vacillating opportunist, or a fanatical zealot shall be the choice of the voters.

"The Sun, considering William Gibbs McAdoo open to deep distrust, and the Rev. Bob Shuler as temperamentally and otherwise unsuited to represent California in the Senate, has decided to give its support to Tallant Tubbs.

"California's interests in national legislation are too vital to be jeopardized by election of an erratic Los Angeles preacher-politician or a reactionary New Yorker who has become only comparatively recently a resident of this state.

"Whichever way they vote on the presidency The Sun urges that its readers make Tallant Tubbs their choice for senator, and by concentrating on a Native Son and a War Veteran, save us from the manifest dangers of a McAdoo or a Shuler victory."

adopted by civic organizations of all kinds.

Wildflowers are admirably adapted to this sort of general planting scheme for beautifying waste spots, highways, vacant lots, etc. The planting season for wildflowers begins with the rainy season. October and November plantings usually bloom in the very early spring.

The Eschscholtzia Aurantiaca, which is the true California poppy, is planted extensively as a wildflower, and thrives in most any soil or under most any climatic condition. Great stretches of these golden yellow poppies may be seen at blooming time all the way from the Mexican border to the Canadian line.

Other popular wildflowers include Nemophila (Baby Blue Eyes), Bartonia, Aurea, Lupin, etc.

With early predictions for much winter moisture, there should be a grand display of wildflowers next spring. You should get your plantings of wildflowers started now.

Floats of Beauty In Rainbow Dream

C. N. P. A. Service

Scots' convention at Long Beach will be featured the night of November 4 with a brilliant motion picture, electrical parade. Known as the "Rainbow of Dreams," the colorful illuminated pageant will be more than a mile in length and will consist of floats as splendid as this sparkling "tower of beauty." The pageant will take place on the Long Beach rainbow pier.

Mrs. Floyd Hill, Ill For Several Months, Passes Away Here

Funeral services for Mrs. Floyd Hill of 727 West Montecito avenue, who passed away early Wednesday morning at the home of her brother, H. J. Kohl, 323 Sycamore Place, will be held at St. Rita's Church on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Hill had been ill for several months. She was born 30 years ago at Springfield, Ohio, and had lived in Sierra Madre for the past seven months. She is survived by her husband, Floyd Hill; two daughters, Margaret and Catherine Hill; her mother, Mrs. Katherine Kohl; four sisters, Miss Marcela Kohl of Sierra Madre; Mrs. Margaret Bourg and Mrs. Marie Egbert of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Irene Glockner of Glendale, and three brothers, Harry J. Kohl and Leo Kohl of Sierra Madre, and Phillip Kohl of Los Angeles.

Interment will take place at Calvary Cemetery, Los Angeles.

Aspiring Writers To Be Instructed By A Local Author

A new story writers class under the personal supervision of James Lockette Hill of No. 7 Belle Vue Court, 15 East Mira Monte avenue, prominent fiction author, was organized on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Lael Street, 224 North Encinitas avenue, Monrovia. The purpose of the class is to give intensive individual instruction that will enable the prospective successful author to begin a regular sale of stories in as few lessons as possible. Mr. Hill is interested only in those aspiring authors who are sincere in their desire to fulfill the assignments given. Since he gives a great amount of personal instruction, only a few in number will be accepted in the class. However, there is still room for a few more members. All wishing to enroll may get in touch with Mr. Hill.

FIFTY SPEED STARS AT ASCOT ON SUNDAY

The second day race of the season Sunday afternoon, October 30, will find between 40 and 45 of the country's leading joggled stars competing in a program of sprint races featured by a 50-lap main event at Legion Ascot Speedway.

The program will present a 50-lap main event, two 10-lap qualifying races, a 15-lap Class B main event, two five-lap heat races for Class B cars, a two-lap Italian Helmet Dash and a five-lap consolation affair. Qualifying the day of the race will start at 1 o'clock with the first race scheduled for 2:30. The track will be open for practice Saturday afternoon.

Cheap Birds This Year
by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

With prospects for a large poultry crop this fall and winter, due to a 7.5 per cent increase in the number of chickens on American farms, there is every indication that holiday birds will be both abundant and reasonably priced.

From the consumer's standpoint at least, it will be a good market. For the benefit of the farmer's Christmas, however, it is to be hoped that the market will strengthen considerably before the holiday season.

One hopeful sign from the poultrymen's standpoint is found in the fact, reported by the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics, that there are 28 per cent less eggs in cold storage than at this period a year ago, which should modify somewhat the overproduction problem.

"FIRST MRS. FRASER" AT THE PLAYHOUSE

"The First Mrs. Fraser," outstanding comedy of modern life, which enjoyed long runs in London and New York, opened at the Pasadena Community Playhouse on Tuesday evening. The light comedy, is one in which the humor of the author, St. John G. Ervine, is said to be unsurpassed. Margaret Clark takes the title role, with an excellent supporting cast which includes Addison Richards, Paul Hansen, Dave Loring and Joan Wheeler. The character "Mrs. Fraser" is a vigorous and delightful one.

Witches 'N Everything Will March

Many Pupils In Cast For Entertainment At P.T.A.'s Hallowe'en Party Tonight

After the parade of goblins and broom-riding, cloud sweeping witches and spooks that will constitute the parade of 400 school children through the downtown area this afternoon, the Old Witch, herself, will appear on the program at the P.T.A. Hallowe'en entertainment in the school auditorium at 7:30 this evening.

That will be after the games have been played on the school playground following the parade and the pot luck supper has been served in spooky surroundings in the cafeteria.

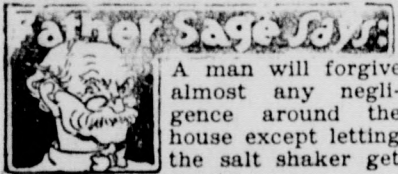

The entertainment in the evening will be featured by the symbolic dance, "Hallowe'en in a Witch's Hut," created and arranged by Madame de Beaulieu. The cast in the order of their appearance is as follows:

Little Elf—Jackie Keegan. Brownie (guard of Fairy Princess) Eileen Pulling; Witch—Kathleen Pulling; Golliwogs—Eleanor Lawrence, Mildred Lawrence, Constance Kereak, Ninabelle Neale. Prisoners (school girls) Margery Bradley, (Fairy Princess) Mary Pulling, Good little girls—Marilyn Pian, Jean Spoelstra, Francis Robertson. Goblin chief—Louis Heaslip. Goblins—Virginia Liscombe, Floretta Keith, Sylvia Shippey, Priscilla Gourdeau, Darlene Andrews.

The prose was written by Marilyn Pian and the dances are "Dances of the Golliwogs" by Eleanor Lawrence, Mildred Lawrence, Constance Kereak and Ninabelle Neale; "Goblin Chief" by Louis Heaslip; "Pumpkin Mazurka" by Darlene Andrews; "Adagio" by Marilyn Pian, Jean Spoelstra, Francis Robertson.

DONATE MUMS FOR RED CROSS RELIEF FUND

Mrs. W. Braumann of 247 North Hermosa avenue, has donated the chrysanthemums from her garden, which was awarded the distinction of being one of the finest smaller gardens of Sierra Madre several years ago, to the Red Cross. A sale of the choice blooms will be held this afternoon at Red Cross headquarters and the proceeds from the sale will be used for local relief work.

A man will forgive almost any negligence around the house except letting the salt shaker get empty.

In A Social Way

A VERY charming Hallowe'en masquerade party was given Monday evening at the Thomas M. Schwartz home, 246 West Highland avenue. Mrs. William C. Dalzell, Mrs. H. Clay Reavis and Mrs. Warren O. Preston assisted Mrs. Schwartz as hostesses. Mr. Preston was winner of first prize for the highest number of points in the games and Mr. Evans received the consolation prize. A different Hallowe'en game was played at each table. Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Preston succeeded in keeping their identity a secret the longest. A Hallowe'en supper was served following an evening of dancing. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalzell, Mr. and Mrs. William Adwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Reavis, Mr. and Mrs. Art Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph R. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Warren O. Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schwartz of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Harold Pegler of Alhambra.

A surprise wedding shower was given last Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robins, whose marriage took place on October 15, by Mrs. Wernicke and Mrs. Mark Kiggins, aunts of the honored couple, at the home of Mrs. Kiggins, 51 Esperanza avenue. The evening was enjoyed at cards and dancing. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. Bradley, Val Miller, Mrs. Charles Young and Joe McCloskey. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Val Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hedlund, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bradley, Mrs. C. WOMEN HERE ENROLL FOR GOP TICKET of the pamphlet "Woman to Woman," referred to as the 12 Points. The Points were written especially for women, but Mrs. Marr recited with glee that there is an equally large call for them for distribution among men and that they were being turned off the press daily by thousands.

Mrs. J. H. Wright announced that the challenge of the 48th Assembly District to the other districts to show, in proportion to their registration, a greater number of women mobilized for Hoover, had been taken up by the whole county, passed on to the other counties which had accepted it, and that the women of the State of California had, on Monday, telegraphed the challenge to the heads of state committees throughout the entire country.

Plans were discussed for a large rally before election, but were left in abeyance until Mrs. Allen could consult with the men's committee and arrange a date and speakers satisfactory to the majority.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Annie Green, State Chairman of the Southern Division of Republican women would broadcast the mobilization speech over the State network this Friday, morning at 10:30. In Los Angeles the broadcast will be over KHJ.

William Barry was elected chairman of the local Boy Scouts at a meeting of the executives on Tuesday evening in the American Legion headquarters at the City Hall. Dean Arnold G. H. Bode was chosen vice-chairman; R. O. Caukin, secretary, and H. E. Allen, treasurer.

"It would have been very difficult for me to put scouting on a sound basis," Mr. Barry stated, "had it not been for the loyal support I received during the past year from the people of the community. Our work has just begun and I urge that all persons in Sierra Madre, who are willing to donate their time to the training of future leaders, the Boy Scouts of America, get in touch with me at my home, 21 West Grand View avenue."

Old Fashioned Costumes And Entertainment Of The Gay Nineties Feature Social Gathering At Church

The splendor of the gay nineties was caught on Tuesday evening at Old Folks Night, sponsored by Mrs. A. F. Snell's section of the Missionary Society of the Congregational Church. The event, one of the most interesting of the season, was held in the Social Hall of the church.

An impromptu play, "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party," was the featured entertainment of the evening. An old fashioned living room was depicted with the family and friends gathered around the organ for an evening of songs. Mrs. Snell was hostess to the callers, who came to view the quilt, which had just been completed.

Two fiddlers, Dave Buchan and Edward Linebaugh, rendered a group of numbers; Daniel Shaffer sang, "The feller that looks like me," and a number of selections were sung by a quartet, comprised of Mrs. D. C. Ashmore, Mrs. Harriet Buckingham, Clarence Noshier and Jack Buchan.

The pages of a large family album opened and closed upon the life sized-pictures of the following, who were dressed in old fashioned costumes: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlett, Allen Thompson, Anna Sue Adwell, Margaret Adwell, Clay Reavis Jr., Albert Wheeling, Mrs. Bess Rhoades, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, Mrs. J. C. Dickson and Mrs. E. Waldo Ward. Mrs. J. M. Campbell presented the photographs, while showing the photographs to Dave Buchan. Mr. Al Wheeling and Mrs. R. M. Finlayson were also cast in the play.

Mrs. J. M. Campbell and Mrs. Homer Glidden were in charge of the entertainment and Mrs. Myrtle G. Hill supervised the music. An exhibition of over 50 quilts and hooked rugs, some over 100 year old, was made possible

S. Corlett for his cooperation and untiring interest during preparations for the affair.

Nothing in the world means so much and costs so little as Electricity

ELECTRICITY

Is Cheap

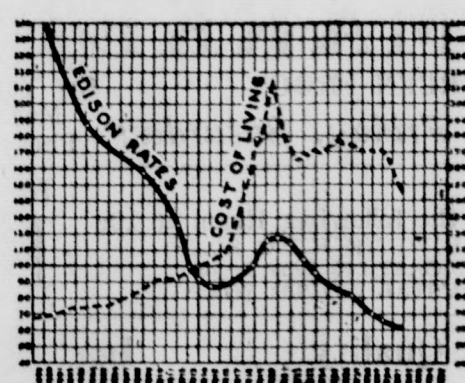

- for instance

To turn on a Light while Looking for Something is far Cheaper than using a Match . . . and Much Safer

YOU WISH TO LOOK for something in your closet, garage, porch, etc., etc. You switch on the electric light for a moment or two. There are no false steps . . . no groping . . . no misreading of labels . . . and the abundant, safe illumination that your electric lamp gives you costs you less than the cheapest match you could buy!

Take advantage of this fact to have plenty of electric light wherever you are likely to need it. Remember . . . you can use far more light today and yet pay no more for electricity than you did years ago. For during the past ten years, while other costs were rising, Edison has voluntarily reduced the cost of electricity eight times, making your electrical dollar buy nearly twice as much electricity as it did in 1921.

Edison Lighting Rates Reduced 42% Since 1921

General living costs are well below their high peak of 1921, but they are still 40% higher than in 1914. But Edison lighting rates are 40% lower than in 1914, and since 1921 these rates have been reduced 42%. Your dollar now buys twice as much electricity for all household uses as it did in 1921!

To Judge Wisely

is sometimes very difficult, but it is not difficult to see the logic in our arguments for insurance. One has only to compare the cost of possible loss with the cost of protection to understand why no property owner can afford to be without insurance protection.

Local Sport Paragraphs

By John Copeland

DAN PARKER, clad in orange sweat-shirt, white sailor cap, too small by much, and what must once have been gym shorts (grey now, and having a hard time encircling Daniel's athletic girth), plays merrily in the local tennis robin of Sundays. Just like Bunny Austin, heh, heh.

As to the gal's division of the affair, no one of them has blossomed forth yet in scanties. Ought to draw good galleries if the right ones were to adopt Dan's idea. No names would we think of mentioning, thus causing embarrassment, etc. But, now, if a bit of pink were added to the layout? Aesthetic values plus tennis should boom the village.

Janie Fox looks good to cop a top place in the final ratings—With a sizable advantage in points already, and with the most consistent tennis to tide him along, Hiro should come out on top in the men's singles.

Not likely that he'll ever see this, but if he should; a toast to the slickest ball pucker we've seen since Morley Drury. That's Orv Mohler, who stepped out of the picture this week with a grin and nary a whimper.

Then just as we were about to plunk down cash on the Bruins in their stand against Stanford tomorrow—Jolting Joe goes and falls on his arm. Thus depriving the Westwood gang of the sweetest fullback on the coast, and what may prove to be the scoring punch should air attack fail to click.

From what observers tell us, the PJC-Santa Monica game was some scrap last Saturday. Pasadena, as y'all know, won handily, aided by Sierra Madre's four hossmen, McBurney, Miller, Scalzo and Young. In the meantime a sandlot tussle was being tussled up here, with members of the lower division team and locals to boot.

In all probability Laury Vejar will see action during the Notre Dame-USC game in Los Angeles, now that he is second string quarter there. Remember when he played for Hollywood High some years back? The only time we know of that the Redshirts came through with a city league pennant. Vic Kelley had the trickiest combination of plays and formations that year we've ever seen since, even in college circles.

The line—six man probably—was laid out with each player a yard or more apart. The line spread nearly from one side of the Coliseum field to the other. Vejar would take the ball from punt formation, but he never had to punt. He just sort of angled his way through the wide gaps.

Prominent local statisticians have figured that it's going to take from now practically to doomsday to play out the tennis round-robin. Something like the old gag of doubling a penny one day, doubling the two pennies the second day, and so forth until at the end of a month you're in danger of being cussed for a bloomin' capatlist.

A sprig of laurel, or whatever you are supposed to give sprigs of, to Mr. Louis Fuller for his expert handling of the robin here. It's no easy job keeping thirty single players (not to count the doubles players, etc.) on a running schedule. Lending competent hands are Bob Chavis, Bill Pyle, Emile Smith and the ones who have volunteered their services as referees—Wes Perry, Jack Butler and others, and the many kids who have humbled themselves into ball boys for the nonce.

Somehow we didn't even realize that Leroy McBurney was on the PJC team. We noticed much good tackle play, but didn't stop to think that Mac was from these parts. Capt. Miller, Young, Scalzo and MacBurney. More than a third of the eleven is Sierra Madre.

The meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club on Wednesday marked the beginning of the fifth year of Mrs. O. B. Manchester as curator of contemporary literature and World affairs of the Club.

The morning session was devoted to a political program at which the Trust-Deed-Mortgage measure, Proposition No. 3, and the School Tax Measure, Proposition No. 9, were discussed. E. W. Camp, Senator Harry Chamberlain, Mr. Ellison of the California Taxation Improvement Association, and Mrs. W. J. Lawless spoke on the amendments.

Miss Edna R. Green, president, announced that a delicatessen table had been prepared by Mrs. Nestor Young, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and that lunches could be purchased by those who did not bring a box lunch. Coffee was served by the club.

Conditions in Manchuria opened the talk by Mrs. Manchester, following the luncheon. "Foreign Affairs," a journal published quarterly, was recommended by her as one of the finest sources of information on World affairs.

'Round the Town

Friends of Frank E. Gibson of 646 Orange Drive, are pleased to see that he is able to be about town again.

Mrs. Warren O. Preston of 503 West Montecito avenue, has been confined to her bed for several days this week.

Mrs. J. Marion Jones and Miss Annunciata Schiltz of 642 Alta Vista Drive, have returned from an enjoyable week's visit at Venice.

Mrs. Caroline Webster and son Bob, of Laguna Beach, were overnight guests of Miss Lydia Webster of 131 Bonita avenue, on Thursday.

A group of 20 friends gathered on Monday evening to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Warren E. Craig at the Craig home, 222 Mariposa avenue.

Mrs. Sylvia Merrill of San Jose, former resident of Sierra Madre, plans to leave this afternoon for her home after spending several days here this week on business and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Middough of 196 East Central avenue, spent Tuesday afternoon in Long Beach visiting relatives. Mrs. Middough, mother of Mr. Middough, who suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago, is improving steadily in health. Mr. Middough enjoyed a golf game with friends.
